WERE ONCE A DRAWBACK.

Great Difficulty In Convincing Colored People of Benefits Derived From Scientific Farming-Interest Taken by Southerners Shown by Meeting In

Atlanta, Ga .-- The greatest drawback the south has had as an agricultural section has been the difficulty in convincing the Negroes that scientific farming would pay and that more things were necessary in the making of a successful farm than just planting the ground, plowing it up and gathering crops each in due season.

One of the significant facts in evidence of the greater interest being taken by the southern Negro in advanced farming methods was the recent meeting of Negro tenants and Negro landowners in Madison county, Ala.

The subject of the conference was "Alabama Must Feed Herself." There were many white people present. Hon. Ben P. Hunt, trustee of the Agricultural and Mechanical college at Normal, Ala., was among the speakers and expressed gratification at the interest being taken. The demonstration agent for the white people of the county spoke on better breeds of plants and

Congressman E. B. Almon urged the abandonment of the one crop system and pointed out that 85 per cent of the southern farms were under mortgage as a result of this system, whereas only 15 per cent of the western farm lands were mortgaged. He declared a rural credit system with low rate agricultural exhibits at the courthouse and at all times were greatly nterested in the program. They came by the hundreds. Probably at no time in the south has the Negro shown in more significant fashion his advancement as a farmer and his interest in

In the Tennessee valley, represented at this conference, there are about 17,-000 Negro tenants, 150 Negro farm owners and 25,000 Negro boys and girls of school age.

Ex-President Taft Heads Committee For Memorial Building at Hampton.

Hampton, Va.-North and south are joining heartily in raising a fund of $100,000 for the Robert Curtis Ogden Memorial Auditorium, which will soon be built at the Hampton (Va.) institute. William Howard Taft, chairman of the Ogden memorial committee, which is composed of public spirited men and women representing the best interests of the south and north, has issued through the New York office of the executive secretary, Sydney D. Frissell, the following statement:

It is proposed by many of his friends now to erect a suitable memorial to Mr. Robert C. Ogden, whose services to this country justify a fitting testimonial to a man well called "an un-official statesman" because of the new and unique character of his work for education in the south.

The southern education board was constituted under his leadership, and its work marked a new epoch of national progress. It brought together men and women of the north and east and south and west who were able to further greatly the education of the

There is urgent need there for a large auditorium, and already a few of his friends have subscribed one-third of the $100,000 necessary for the erection of such a building. This would be particularly suitable to the memory of Mr. Ogden.

Other officers of the Ogden memorial committee are: Edwin A. Alderman, Miss Ellen F. Mason, William Jay Schieffelin and Mrs. John Markoe, vice chairmen: George Foster Peabody, secretary, and Clarence H. Kelsey, 176 Broadway, New York, treasurer.

The national character of the committee is shown by the number of states represented - Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Georgia, Massachusetts, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Virginia and the District of Columbia. Iron Pipe and Steel. Viewing impartially all of the data presented so far, there seems to be little to choose between wrought iron and steel pipe, on the whole, as regards their resistance to corrosive influences, but one point may be mentioned with reference to the manner in which these materials corrode. With steel the rusting takes place more or less uniformly over the surface, while wrought iron shows a decided inclination to form deep pits. That this is a dangerous tendency can hardly be doubted. To paraphrase an old saying, a pipe wall is no stronger than its thinnest spot. Therefore to the extent tific remedy for scalp troubles. in which wrought iron exhibits this defect in greater measure than steel it may be considered correspondingly inferior.-Engineering Magazine.

handling of steel plates, steel rails, scrap iron, pig iron and other materials proved a tedious and difficult matter. There was delay in applying the hoisting tackle, accidents were frequent because of the slipping of hooks or appliances used to hold the material together, and with small pieces the cost was very high. Magnets have improved these conditions and have added an element of safety to the handling of iron and steel products. Regardless of the shape of the material, the magnet attaches itself instantly to its load, holds it as long as necessary and then releases it, all the operations being completed without having a man approach either the magnet or the load. -Engineering Magazine.

UP FROM SLAVERY.

When the news of the death of Dr. Booker T. Washington spread over the land last Sunday a pall of sorrow and feeling akin to the loss of one near and dear seemed to pervade the That the Negro's greatest lead-Moses and its guiding star, had fallen, none will dare deny. Opponents he had in the fullness of life and glory; some wise and some otherwise, is admitted. But the measure of his worth to a struggling race was Music During Meals. only heightened by opposition, and one at some time, found some one in spiration in his many hopeful and helpful words of cheer and encourage-Up from Slavery he came, a conquering hero, led doubtless by some strange divinity, through trials and tribulations, incident to a struggling people, never faltering, never failing, he pressed forward. Presi dents, monarchs, potentiates, high and better for his having lived. Booker Washington was a great man. His source of power and matchless leadership proved an enigma to wise men but, if from "out of the mouths of portion in life and shall continue through the grave. Let their be engraved upon the beautiful marble ship, who died last Friday at his home, shaft that rises from his last resting 1136 E. 16th street, was held Friday place, these simple words:

CAMPAIGN NOW OPEN.

ally opened and the battle for political Shelton. preferment at the Republican primaries is now on in full swing. It is always a good omen for party success when the campaign orators rally around the Negro voter; and in the fullness of his heart, he doubtless would like to vote for them all. It is high sounding to the ears to rock rebel shirt of secession and to beat the air about even present-day oppressions, but the Negro of today is doing his own thinking and the Republican candidate whose past performsuces belie his present sugar-coated owner or later. The Negro voter will and must choose those candidatesand it seems like they will always be white-who are best fitted to fill public office, as dutiful public servants. The Negro wants equal rights before the law, of course, but like his white brother he wants a little more. It is fair to him to not only accept his party loyalty but to carry that friendship with you even after taking office. The candidate who realizes this vital omission will do well.

CHURCH BILLBOARDS.

In one of the leading churches of this city recently, the pastor stated that the further use of his pulpit for the reading of public and secular notices, running from entertainments to political meetings, would be discontinued. Aside from the very urgent church announcements, the sanctity of the Sunday worship should not be marred by such unseemly practices. The wonder of the whole affair is that such a deplorable condition ever existed in this enlightened day. With printer's ink so easy to use for the umns of the four weekly newspapers for the dissemination of general news as well as advertisements, it looks as if our Negro churches could well take a needed step forward. We hope that other pastors who are guilty of maintaining public billboards in their pulpits, will follow this lead-that the beauty and sanctity of the Christian worship might be preserved.

Lesson VIII. - Fourth Quarter. For Nov. 21, 1915.

Text of the Lesson, Jonah ili, 1-10. pared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

discredit on the Lord Jesus Christ, for He called Jonah a prophet and said that his three days and nights in the belly of the fish were typical of His own three days and nights between His death and resurrection. He also spoke of the repentance of the people of Knoxville, Tenn.-Hundreds of young Nineveh under the preaching of Jonah men of the colored race are making and of a future judgment (Matt. xii, 39-41; Luke xi, 32). To question the words of the Lord Jesus is to question God the Father, for He said that the Father always told Him what to say (John xii, 47-50). Jesus Christ said, "I am The Truth," and God is called "the God of Truth" (John xiv, 6; Isa. 1xv. 16). Therefore let our hearts cry, "Let God be true, but every man a liar;" "For we can do nothing against the > II Cor. xiii, 8). When Jonah is mentioned people always think of the fish, whereas the fish is mentioned but four times in the book, while God or Lord is mentioned forty times. We are not as right with God as we might be until we give the same relative importance to people and things that He does: therefore let us not magnify the fish, but the Lord. This is called a foreign missionary lesson, and it is certainly a good one on that topic, as we shall see. Two of the great foundation truths of the Bible are "God is love" and "The Lord is not willing that any should perish" (I John iv, 8, 16; II B. D., pastor. Ernest Jones, superin-Pet. iii, 9). In this lesson we see a great city of at least 600,000 people school at close of morning service (120,000 children) and much cattle, and Ladies' Alliance meets second and there was great wickedness in the city fourth Wednesdays. Corinthian Le-(Jonah i, 2; iv, 11), but God would rather save than destroy them, and He days. sent Jonah to call upon them to repent that He might spare them.

That is always God's attitude to the world lying in the wicked one. He commandeth all men everywhere to repent, for He will have all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth (Acts xvii. 30: I Tim. ii. 3. 4). But how can they know unless some one tells? So Jonah is called of God to go and tell Nineveh that, while the Lord does not wish them to perish, unless they repent judgment will come in forty days (i, 1, 2; iii, 4). At first Jonah is unwilling to go and seeks to flee from the call. Then follows the record of the voyage to Tarshish begun seemingly so favorably, but suddenly interrupted, for God sent two detectives to arrest His man and bring him back. A great wind to stop him board. and a great fish to bring him ashore (i. 4, 17). Arrested on the high seas Literary Society. and brought back, it reads like an up to date story, for our God is always up to date and away ahead. The only man on the ship who knew the true God fast asleep, while the heathen sailors earnestly cried unto their gods. Rev. B. F. Farrell, D. D., Pastor. Phone Those who have the Bible and in it the knowledge of the living and true God and of salvation by Jesus Christ for all who will receive Him are as indifferent to the welfare of the millions of so called heathen who are earnestly calling upon their gods as was Jonah when fast asleep on that ship. They need to hear the cry of that shipmaster: "What meanest thou, O sleeper? Arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us that we perish not" (i, 6).

If we had anointed ears we might hear the heathens say, "Arise and tell us of And we would surely hear God saving. "Whom shall I send and who will go for us?" (Isa. vi, 8.) If God was away from his people or church, but seeking in this age to win the world to Himself both He and we might well is one of the leading members in the be discouraged, but He is not discouraged, and He cannot fail (Isa. xlii. 4) This book of Jonah shows us his plan. Jonah was an Israelite. After his resurrection from the dead, in a figure, he went to Nineveh and preached the preaching that the Lord bade him, and a whole city repented (chapter iii). I do not know of another instance on record of a whole city turning to God. Now see the foreshadowing of His plan. night. Israel has long been rebellious, but when they shall see the Lord Jesus.

the risen Christ, their glorious and glorified Messiah, coming in His glory, as Saul saw Him on the way to Damascus, they will receive Him and with the zeal of Paul will speedily make Him known to all the world, and whole nations will turn to Him and be saved (Isa, xxv, 9; xxvii, 6; xxxv, 10; 11i, 9, 10; lx, 1-3; Rom. xi, 12, 15). Notice in this book how God used a wind, a fish, a worm and even such a strange man as Jonah and, being first of all sure that you are redeemed by the precious blood of Jesus Christ, say to Him with all your heart. "Here am I; use me." Oh, use me, Lord, use even me, just as thou wilt. the St. John Methodist Episcopal and when and where, until Thy blessed face I see: Thy rest. Thy joy. Thy glory share.

In Tennessee Dr. G. W. Porter Is Known as One of Most Successful Financiers In A. M. E. Church, and This Has Made His Services Much Sought For-A Good Revivalist.

Nashville, Tenn.-Paris, Tenn., has the distinction of furnishing to the one of its strongest pastors and preachers, Rev. George Wellington Porter, D. D., who is now pastor of St. John's A. M. E. church and was one of the members of the last general conference, the Tennessee conference, which met Oct. 20.

A little over forty-eight years ago he was born of African Methodist parents in Paris and received his common school and high school education in his native state and around the place where he was born. The finishing touch was received from Morris Brown college, in Atlanta, Ga.

This was the beginning of an active life, for in 1890 he entered the minis-Wayman of Baltimore. For three years he was presiding elder of the Clarksville district, but preferred the ministry in active pastorate. It was at his own request that he was returned to the pastorate where he has worked with the people. At Haute. the general conference which met in room will be at a premium on that Wilmington, N. C., May, 1896, he was among the progressive delegates. It was his first time there, but he made a record for himself, and his worth and ability were recognized, and at every conference since he has been there giving the benefit of his ability and experience. When the general conference met in Chicago in 1903 he was one of the general secretaries and has been one since. Not only has he served on the episcopal committee in the general conference, but he has been on some of the strong committees in the

In Tennessee Dr. Porter is known as one of the most successful financlers in the A. M. E. church, and this has made his services much sought for in various parts of the country. He has a strong and striking personality and is one of the best revivalists. During his stay in Memphis he conducted a revival for four weeks in Avery chapel and added 736 to the church, and these were all converted from the altar.

Some time ago Dr. Porter purchased a home in Memphis, where his interesting family lives. His wife is a well trained woman, and the daughter, Miss Lela B. Porter, a graduate from Straight university, New Orleans, and Ulden university, Nashville, Tenn., is teacher in the Memphis public
